

<Title of the Paper>

Author(s) Name <First Author, Second Author, Third Author, Fourth, *>

Department of <Name of the department or unit of first Author, second Author, etc., if associated with the same department or unit >

*Department of <Name of the department, unit of other Author(s), if associated with different department or unit >

Name of the Organisation, Institute or College, <City> - (PIN Code) <Country>

*Name of the Organisation, Institute or College, <City> - (PIN Code) <Country>

email <corresponding Author>

Abstract

<A well-structured abstract of a research paper provides readers with an overview of its purpose, methods, results, and/or conclusions helping the readers decide whether the paper is relevant to their interests or research needs; ideal word limit should be between 150-300 words. >

Key words: <key words to be mentioned here; minimum 3; maximum 7>.

A research paper can be organised in several ways, commonly a research paper should have the following:

Introduction:

Review of literature

Hypothesis

Methodology

Data analysis

Figures and tables

Conclusion

Result and Discussion

Numbered endnotes

References

Author(s) can organise their paper as per their need and subject requirement.

For English: Font type -Times new roman, Font size 12 with 1.5 line spacing.

For Hindi: Font type -Unicode, Font size 12 with 1.5 line spacing.

References:

1. A. Author, B. Author, (year), title of the research paper, name of the journal, volume, issue, page numbers, publisher, country, DoI, if any.
2. C. Author, (year), title of the chapter in the book, title of the book, edition, page numbers, publisher, country.